

CLEANING

Cleaning is the physical removal of germs, dirt and debris from surfaces. Although it may not kill germs, it lowers their numbers and reduces the risk of spreading infection.

VS.

DISINFECTING

Disinfecting eliminates and kills germs. Bleach and alcohol solutions are common disinfectants.

You cannot disinfect a dirty surface. Cleaning should always come first.

